Section 7(1)(a)(iv)

Literature available by subscription

The Ministry of Trade and Industry offers no literature by way of subscription services.

Section 7(1)(a)(v)

Procedure to be followed when a request for access to a document is made to the Ministry of Trade and Industry

Applications to the Ministry of Trade and Industry must be made in writing. The Request for Access to Official Documents form can be accessed from the Ministry's website <https://tradeind.gov.tt/> or downloaded from the website <http://www.foia.gov.tt/>. The application should include:

- Name of the Applicant (Full name preferred)
- Contact information for the Applicant
- The information requested and the format in which the information is to be provided
- Date of request
- Signature of Applicant
- Details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested.

The application should be addressed to the Designated Officer or Alternate Officer of the Ministry of Trade and Industry identified at Section 7(1)(a)(vi). If insufficient information is provided, clarification will be sought from the Applicant. An applicant who is unsure of how to write a request or of what details to include, should inquire from the Designated or Alternate Officer.

A request under the FOIA may not be processed to the extent that it seeks information that is readily available in the public domain, either from the Ministry of Trade and Industry or another public authority, or if the said information is exempt.

The Ministry of Trade and Industry is required to furnish copies of documents only when they are in its possession.

The Ministry of Trade and Industry is required to furnish only one copy of a document. If it cannot make a legible copy of the document to be released, it will not attempt to reconstruct it, instead the best copy possible will be furnished.

The Ministry of Trade and Industry will determine whether to grant a request for access to information as soon as practicable but not later than 30 days of the date of receipt, as required by the FOIA. Every effort will be made to comply with the time frames set out in the FOIA, but where it appears that processing a request may take longer than the statutory limit, the Ministry of Trade and Industry will acknowledge the request and advise the applicant of its status. If the Ministry fails to meet the deadlines set out in the FOIA, the applicant has the right to proceed as if the request has been denied.

Section 17(1) of the FOIA stipulates that no fee shall be charged by a public authority for the making of a request for access to an official document. However, where access to an official document is to be given in the form of printed copies, or copies in some other form, such as tape, disk, film or other material, the applicant will be required to pay the prescribed fee incurred for duplication of the said material.

Section 7(1)(a)(vi)

Procedure to be followed when a request for access to a document is made to the Ministry of Trade and Industry

Officers in the Ministry are responsible for:

1. the initial receipt of, and action upon notices under section 10 of the FOIA
2. requests for access to documents under section 13 of the FOIA, and
3. applications for corrections of personal information under section 36 of the FOIA.
